Grange testifies against legislation to change Clean and Green Act

The Pennsylvania State Grange, which represents 40,000 rural and farming Pennsylvanians, testified last month in opposition to legislation amending the state's Clean and Green Act, which is a primary method of land preservation in the Commonwealth.

Brenda Shambaugh, Grange legislative director, told the state House Game and Fisheries Committee the Grange opposes any changes to the Clean and Green program, which was created in 1974 to preserve farmland, forest land and open space by taxing land according to its use value rather than the prevailing market value. The voluntary program generally requires a minimum of 10 acres to remain in a designated use category such as agricultural use, agricultural reserve or forest reserve. Land taken out of the permitted use is subject to a penalty of back taxes plus interest.

Proposed legislation, HB 2676 and HB2677, would mandate land classified as forest reserve in the program to be opened for hunting season. Under present law only the agricultural reserve category must be opened for hunting.

"We are concerned this legislation may open the door for mandates that the farming classification be opened for hunting season," Shambaugh said. The proposed bills do not include a grandfather clause for forest owners who currently participate in the program and oppose open trespassing.

"This legislation could cause many problems for landowners including property damage, litter and the trampling of small trees once their lands are open to the public," she added.

Last day to register to vote

Rep. Bruce Smith today reminded residents of the 92nd Legislative District that Tuesday, October 9, is the last day to register to vote in the Nov. 6 general election.

In order to register, an individual must have been a U.S. citizen for at least 30 days preceding the election, be at least 18 years old on the day after the election and have lived in the election district at least 30 days prior to the election.

Smith said that individuals who have not voted in the last two years or have recently moved should check with the courthouse in York to determine if their registration is current.

He also encouraged citizens who will be unable to vote at their regular polling place on Nov. 6 to obtain an absentee ballot. The application must be received by the county board of election by October 30. The completed ballot must be returned to the board by Nov. 2.

Postage-free registration forms and absentee ballot applications are available at Smith's district office 540-B Industrial Drive, Fairview Industrial Park, Lewisberry, Pa. 17339.

1991 Waterfowl Stamp

Pennsylvania's 1991 voluntary waterfowl stamp and fine art print, available next spring, will feature American wigeons. The stamp and print design, with a male on the water and the female scratching her cheek, was selected from 51 entries submitted during the Pymatuning Waterfowl Expo in Linesville last week.

The artist, Gerald W. Putt of Boiling Springs, is the first native Pennsylvanian to win the duck stamp and print competition. He designed the "first of state" Pennsylvania conservation stamp and print for the Pennsylvania Nature Conservancy this year, was the 1990 Game Commission Working Together for Wildlife print competition winner, was the 1990 South Carolina Ducks Unlimited artist of the year and was the 1989 New York state Ducks Unlimited artist of the year.

Other finalists in the competition were Robert Sopchick of York; Mark Bray, Alburtis; Dennis Burkhart, Wrightsville; and Laura Mark-Fineberg, Pequea.

Program Coordinator Carl Graybill, assistant director of the Commission's Bureau of Information and Education, pointed out that this is the second time the contest was limited to Pennsylvania artists, and that Putt is the first lifelong resident of the state to finish first in the competition.

Plans for the shopping strip have been on the township's drawing boards for approximately two years. In June 1989, the board of supervisors approved a preliminary final plan submitted by a New York based development company. At that time, a company spokesman proposed to begin the first phase of construction on the 39 acre area in the summer of 1990. However, that developer soon abandoned the project.

In March 1990, the board of supervisors approved a preliminary plan for the shopping center submitted by developer Frank Nardo of York Associates.

According to Carl, the planning commission was scheduled to review Nardo's final plan on August 16. However, that action was tabled to allow the project engineer to revise the plan.

On September 20, the commission was prepared to review an amended plan, Carl said, but it was not submitted 10 days prior to the meeting. Therefore, the commission discussed the existing plan.

In addition to the letter from the York County Conservation District, the planning commission received letters from residents Bill Wertzes and John Lanz, and from Fire Chief John Shambaugh of Citizens Hose Company. Those letters addressed concerns for traffic, fire, and public safety, Carl said.

Britten-Pears Ensemble

On Tuesday, October 16, 1990, at 8:15 p.m. the Harrisburg Civic Opera Association will present a special concert introducing The Britten-Pears Ensemble from England, at Weiss Center, Dickinson College, Carlisle. This is their first U.S. tour.

This group of eight extremely talented young musicians is comprised of Barbara Rearick, mezzo soprano; Alice Brewer, harp; Karen Jones, flute; Neysis Ashworth, clarinet; Lawrence Jackson, and Celia Waterhouse, violins; John Metcalfe, viola, and Jonathan Tunnell, cello. They met and formed the ensemble some years ago when they were attending the Britten Pears School for Advanced Musical Studies in Aldeburgh, England, founded by the famous British composer, Benjamin Britten, and tenor Peter Pears.

Mezzo soprano Barbara Rearick, daughter of John and Mary Rearick of Dillsburg, Pa., presently resides in New York when she is not on tour with the ensemble. Rearick made her British debut in 1987 at the Aldeburgh Festival as Britten's "Lucretia." Earlier this year, with the Britten-Pears Ensemble, she participated in two memorable concerts at Queens Hall, Edinburgh, and St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London.

In 1985, Barbara Rearick portrayed Suzuki in "Madame Butterfly" with the Harrisburg Civic Opera, and recently she sang Anina in "La Traviata" with the New York City Opera.

Because of the unique musical makeup of the Britten-Pears Ensemble, the program will be extremely varied and interesting. The program will include Britten's Rhapsody for String Quartet; Debussy's Sonata for Flute, Viola and Harp, Ravel's Introduction and Allegro for harp, string quartet, flute and clarinet, and two works by Martin and Hindemith for mezzo soprano and accompaniment. Richard Rodney Bennett's arrangement of Gershwin Melodies, commissioned by the Ensemble especially for their U.S. tour, will also be performed.

For the enjoyment of concert patrons, Le California Cafe, a very popular Carlisle restaurant, has planned a special preconcert dinner with an operatic theme. Concert patrons should call 249-2028 for more information and reservations.

Tickets for the Britten-Pears concert on Tuesday, October 16th are available at Jill Rearick Lumber, Dillsburg; at all area Irving Shoe Stores; Le California Cafe, Carlisle; or by telephoning the Harrisburg Civic Opera Association at 763-8967.

Speakeasy raided

By David March

Agents from the Pennsylvania State Police Bureau of Liquor Control enforcement (B.L.C.E.), along with Carroll Township Police Dept., raided an illegal club or speakeasy.

Agents and police, armed with a search warrant, entered the home of Charles Thomas at the corner of Filey's Road and Dorsey Lane in Monaghan Township.

B.L.C.E. agent David Christensen said the raid capped a two month investigation during which time an agent from the (B.L.C.E.) had joined the club and was allegedly issued a membership card by accused club owner Charles Thomas. The agent said annual dues were $25.

Two patrons in the speakeasy at the time of the raid were arrested and later released. Police refused to give the names of the two men, but did say they were considering a charge of resisting arrest against one man but would not elaborate.

Confiscated in the raid were various bottles of liquor; cases of beer; a juke box, bar stools; a .22 caliber revolver; beer signs and lights; A refrigerator; pool cues; and an undisclosed amount of cash.

Agents dismantled the bar with a sledge hammer, taking it along as well.

Faced with having to knock out a cinder block wall, they opted to leave the pool table behind.

The bar was stocked with cheese crackers, pickled eggs, chips and other barroom snacks, a sign on the wall offered hamburgers for $1.50 and eggs, any style. The food was left behind, too. "It would spoil in the evidence room," Agent Christensen reasoned.

If convicted, Thomas could face up to six months in jail and a $500 fine for each count of selling beer or liquor.

Police said an investigation is continuing and more charges are pending.

Northern Pee Wees improve record

by Daryl Dissinger

Saturday September 29th saw the PeeWee team improve its record to 4 wins and only 1 defeat. Northern handled the Boiling Spring Bengals 20-6. The Polar Bear offense was spectacular, scoring on three of the first four possessions.

Tom Wesner took Quarterback Brad Perva's hand off around the right end for a 27 yard touchdown run. Jason Gates added the extra point.

Northern's next score came when Aycot Koulavong recaptured his yards around left end for the score. Jason Gates added the extra point for a Northern 1st quarter lead of 14-0.

The Pee Wees added a third score in the first half which was set up by the hard running of Jason Gates. Jason picked up big yards up the middle and then Perva hit Tom Wesner with a 23 yard touchdown pass.

The Pee Wees had a total of 209 yards offense. Tom Wesner led this weeks rushing explosion with 95 yards. Jason Gates rushed for 84 yards, Aneol Koulavong for 16 yards, Brad Perva for 12 yards and Scott Magee for two yards.

Defensively the Polar Bears stopped the Bengals in their tracks. The Bears allowed just 48 yards offensively. Scott Magee and Jason Gates had a very big game with 11 tackles each including two quarterback sacks.

Aneol Koulavong and Ryan Napoli followed with nine tackles each, Brad Perva eight tackles, Mike Manoni and Braody Repman seven tackles, Josh Ormsbee, Tom Wesner, Dustin Kipe and Tim Anthony five tackles and Nick O'Connor with four tackles.

The tough Northern Defense recovered 3 fumbles, Braody Repman, Ryan Napoli and Scott Magee recovered the loose footballs for the Polar Bears.

Despite the loss of Brock Bennett and Brent Wesner for two weeks. The play of Greg Reid and Josh Ormsbee pleased the coaching staff. They played very well in a very difficult situation," said Coach Daryl Dissinger. Next week, we play the undefeated East Shore Royals.

It should be a very exciting game. A victory for us would most likely clinch a playoff spot. The PeeWees lead their Division now by three games. When the PeeWees go to the playoffs it will be the first time in many years. Northern has had a championship season.

School Update

by Chris Flohr

The students' attitudes at Northern High School seemed to have undergone a revival of sorts this past week. September has ended and a very busy October awaits us with Homecoming, Dillsburg Farmers Fair and Halloween.

As many of you know, this Friday is Homecoming. A lot of the Northern alumni who haven't strayed too far from Dillsburg will show up for the annual football game. The Homecoming dance will be held on Saturday for students, but I'm sure that no one would mind if some former students stopped by to rekindle some memories.

Few NHS students realize the tradition which has been handed down to us by the alumni. Many former NHS students not only excelled at Northern but have gone on to successful careers in all sorts of fields. These alumnus have helped Northern to earn the respect it now holds, in academics as well as athletics.

I think all the alumni deserve a lot of thanks, for giving the current students at NHS something to be proud of and to strive for in the future. Thanks Alumni!

In the not too distant future, about fifteen NHS students may become world travelers. Some Spanish students have started planning a trip for over Easter vacation. The excursion will last for eleven days and will include stops at Madrid, Toledo (Spain), Nice (France), Florence, and Rome. Mrs. Eileen Conley, a Spanish teacher at NHS, and her husband, Roy, have been thinking about this trip since a group of students went on a similar trip in the spring of 1989.

It'll be interesting to hear the students' description of their trip overseas, where they'll actually use the language they study.

This past Tuesday was Picture day at NHS. Everything seemed to go as expected. Some kids dressed well on their toes and such, but others went with the customary t-shirts and jeans. That's just fine because everyone expresses themselves differently.

Despite their loss, the football team provided a gutsy performance at Milton Hershey this past Saturday. Our Polar Bears beat the Spartans in every part of the game except on the scoreboard. It was an outstanding effort by everyone. They keep improving every week. This would be a great week to start your winning streak. Good luck, you guys can do it.

The soccer team had three big wins this week in their drive to the division title. Good luck the rest of the season, fellas, bring home that championship.

Good luck to all of the sports teams in the week ahead.
